SportsPilot signs exclusive reseller agreement with ScoreCrazy.com

Frisco, TX --- June 9, 2009--- SportsPilot is proud to announce its partnership with Canadian based ScoreCrazy.com. Under the terms of the agreement, ScoreCrazy.com will be providing members in Canada with SportsPilot's latest online registration, scheduling, and league management technology. Brad Darby, SportsPilot's Sales Manager states "We are excited about this opportunity to expand our client base into Canada, and we believe with the wide variety of sports organizations in the ScoreCrazy.com network, that we can continue to grow internationally."

Currently, ScoreCrazy provides online services for the following sports: Hockey, Basketball, Slo Pitch, Football, Volleyball, Soccer, Flag Football, Curling, Lacrosse, Rugby, Ball Hockey, Ultimate Frisbee, and Darts. Their online memberships exceed 8,000 active users and over 300 leagues and tournaments.

ScoreCrazy offers a league management utility which allows amateur and recreational sports leagues to place their game schedules, results, statistics and profiles online at no cost. Organizations use ScoreCrazy to give their members online access to their information while keeping their costs to a minimum. Members use ScoreCrazy to check their schedules, check on their team's results and standings and to track their own statistics.

SportsPilot, Inc. is an information services provider specializing in amateur sports information systems and currently serves over 400 sports organizations nationally, processing over 500,000 player and team registration transactions annually. SportsPilot also provides online registration services, league management software, and tournament scheduling to the amateur sports community. More information about SportsPilot and their services can be found online at www.sportspilot.com or by contacting Brad Darby at 214-472-3423 or bdarby@sportspilot.com.
